

Worldcafe

Welcome to the famous “Worldcafe”.

Visitors from all over the world have discovered this cafe and some were able to claim a table in the cafe for their land

The following persons claimed a table for their land:

Person	Land
Raymond Wiggers	Netherlands
Darren Branagh	Ireland
Gary Hawes	England
Laucsap Noslohcain	Wales
Poulette73	France
John C Stroebel	USA
Salvacam	Spain
Rinus Callenbach	Portugal
Jens	Germany
Dmitrii	Russia
Martin	Denmark

Back home everyone told their friends to visit that cafe when in town. This made the WORLDCAFE so popular that waiters had to guide the visitors to the table belonging to their country. Each round a waiter (you or the computer) must guide the visitor to a seat.

Due to the popularity seats of tables needed to be shared with mutiple lands.
A seat in between 2 lands can be used by both inhabitants.

To keep the cafe popular the owner insist that visitors are guided to their seats a.s.a.p.
When you are the first to do that you score the remaining time as points in this round.
When you are not the fastest waiter you still need to seat the visitor a.s.a.p since you get penaltypoints for being later than the other waiter but the penalty is less when the visitor is seated sooner. Sometimes a visitor can not be seated but visitors also leave the cafe so a seat might get free before time ends. After a round the waiters are transported back to the door and new visitors come in. When the penaltycount reaches 30 the player looses a live. The computerplayer is fired and a better waiter is hired (level up). The highest level is “3”.

The screen has following data
